1 Subjects and Verbs

The key in learning an new language is to understand how to use the verbs. Therefore, we concentrate on these. There exist two tracks of verbs in Spanish, those verbs ending in -ar and those ending in -er or -ir. For instance, we have hablar for to speak, and comer for to eat and vivir meaning to live¹.

Pronunciation. The pronunciation is easy in Spanish as words are pronounced as they are written but there can only one single stress in each word. If there is an apostrophe the corresponding vowel/syllable is stressed, otherwise the second to last syllable is stressed. For instance, we have hab-lar, thus hab is stressed. In Spanish the leading h is not pronounced, thus hablar is pronounced as ah-blahr, with the bold part being stressed. Furthermore, the v is pronounced as b, and ll as j.

Present Tense Conjungation. To conjugate -ar verbs, remove the -ar ending and add the corresponding ending of the desired subject. For instance with the word hablar (to speak) we get the top part in Table 1.

Note that el is masculine, ella is feminine and usted is formal for you. In case of group of peoples we have ellos for groups of man or mixed groups, ellas for groups consisting only of woman, and ustedes for taking formally to a group. For -er endings, remove the -er ending and add the corresponding subject ending. We use comer (to eat) as example, cf. Table 1.

And very similar to the -er verbs, are the -ir verbs, where only the nosotros and vosotrs endings are different. For vivir (to live) is presented in the bottom part of Table 1.

[MS: Pronouns + in the infinite form the pronoun? is adapted to the word. levantarse. levantarme, yo me levanto.]

2 Special, Stem-Changing and Irregular Verbs

Special Verbs. First of all there of are a handful special verbs that do not follow the regular pattern in the yo form, though they are easy to remember as they are very common. This of course also means that they important to know. These are:

Infinitive	Meaning	yo form	Meaning decir	to say/tell	yo di g o	I tell hacer	to do	yo ha g o	I do poner	to put	yo pon g o	I put salir	to go out/leave	yo sal g o	I go out suponer	to suppose	yo supon \mathbf{g} o	I suppose tener	to have	yo ten g o	I have traer	to bring	yo trai \mathbf{g} o	I bring venir	to come	yo ven \mathbf{g} o	I come

Table 2: Irregular verbs.

We call these words the go-go words as the end in -go. Additionally to these words other words ending in -poner fall into the same category. There is one more word that is different, but not a go-go word: haber (to have). As tener it also means to have, but it is used when talking about the past. We will investigate this in detail later.

Spelling Changes. Some verbs do not follow the rules of the previous section, i.e. there is a spelling change in the yo form ².

- Verbs ending in -guir the yo form ends in go. The yo form ends in go, e.g. extinguir (to extinguish) is yo extingo.
- Verbs ending in -ger or -gir, the g in the yo form changes to a j. For instance dirigir (to direct) we get 'yo dirijo' for 'I direct'.

Here are some common verbs that use these two rules:

Infinitive	Meaning	yo form
extinguir	to extinguish	extingo dirigir	to direct	dirijo escoger	to choose	escojo exigir	to demand	exijo
recoger	to pick up	recojo

Table 3: Verbs with -guir, -ger and -gir ending have different yo forms.

Vowel Changes. In the present tense some verbs undergo a vowel change in the last vowel of the stem of the verb, when it is stressed. Recall that without accent the second to last syllable is stressed and always only one syllable of each word is stressed in Spanish. There can be following changes.

1. e becomes ie. For instance the word querer (to want) conjugates as follows:

Subject	er-Ending	Example (querer)	Meaning yo	-O	yo qu ie ro	I want tú	-es	tú qu ie res	you want el/ella/usted	-e	el qu ie re	he/she/you want(s) nosotros	-emos	nostros queremos	we want vosotros	-éis	vosotros queréis	you want ellos/ellas/ustedes	-en	ellos qu ie ren	they/you want

Table 4: The verb querer conjugated.

Here are some common verbs for which \mathbf{e} become \mathbf{ie} , note that these follow the same pattern as querer in Table 4:

Verb	Meaning	Example
acertar	to hit/guess	yo acierto atender	, -
atravesar	to cross/go through	yo atravieso calentar	to warm	yo caliento cerrar	to close	yo cierro

descender	to descend	yo desciendo despertarse	to wake up	yo me despierto divertirse	to have fun	yo me divierto empezar	to begin	yo empiezo encender	to light/turn on	yo enciendo encerrar	to $enclose/lock$	yo encierro entender	to understand	yo entiendo fregar	to scrub/wash	yo friego gobernar	to govern/rule	yo gobierno helar	to freeze	yo hielo
mentir	to lie	yo miento negar	negar to deny
nevar	to snow	yo nievo
pensar	to think	yo pienso perder	to lose	yo piedo preferir	to prefer	yo prefiero querer	to want	yo quiero recomendar	to recommend	yo recomiendo remendar	to mend/patch	yo remiendo sentar(se)	to sit down	yo me siento sentir	to feel	yo siento sugerir	to suggest	yo sugiero tener	to have	tú tienes tropezar	tropezar to stumble
venir	to come	tú vienes

Table 5: Some common verbs for which the last ${\bf e}$ in the stem becomes ie when conjugated.

2. o becomes ue. For example the word soñar (to dream) conjugates as follows:

Subject	ar-Ending	Example (soñar)	Meaning yo	-O	yo s ue ño	I dream
tú	-as	tú s ue ñas	you dream el/ella/usted	-a	el s ue ña	he/she/you dream(s) nosotros	-amos	nostros sonamos	we dream vosotros	-áis	vosotros soñáis	you dream ellos/ellas/ustedes	-an	ellos s ue ñan	they/you dream

Table 6: The verb sonar conjugated.

Another one is the word oler (to smell), for which also an h is added at the beginning when the first letter of the word is changed:

Subject	er-Ending	Example (oler)	Meaning yo	-O	yo hue lo	I smell tú	-es	tú hue les	You smell el/ella/usted	-e	el hue le	he/she/you smell(s) nosotros	-emos	nostros olemos	we smell vosotros	-éis	vosotros oléis	you smell ellos/ellas/ustedes	-en	ellos hue len	they/you smell

Table 7: The verb oler conjugated.

Below again you can find common verbs with this vowel change.

Verb	Meaning	Example
absolver	to absolve	yo absuelo acordarse (de)	to agree on/remember	yo me acuerdo de almorzar	to have lunch	yo almuerzo aprobar	to approve	yo apruebo cocer	to boil/bake	yo cueco

contar	to count	yo cuento costar	to cost	yo cuesto demoler	to demolish	yo demuelo demostrar	to demonstrate/prove	yo demuestro devolver	to return	yo devuelvo disolver	to dissolve	yo disuelvo doler	to hurt	yo duelo
dormir	to sleep	yo duermo encontrar	to find	yo encuentro envolver	to wrap	yo envuelvo llover	to rain	yo lluevo moler	to grind	yo muelo morder	to bite	yo muerdo morir	to die	yo muero
mostrar	to show	yo muestro mover	to move	yo muevo
oler	to smell	yo huelo
poder	to be able to	yo puedo probar	to taste, to prove	yo pruebo promover	to promote	yo promuevo recordar	to remember	yo recuerdo remover	to remove	yo remuevo resolver	to resolve	yo resuelvo retorcer	to twist	yo retuerto [MS: why -to?] revolver	to mix/shake	yo revuelvo rogar	to beg	yo ruego soler	to be accustomed to	yo suelo (means: I usually) sonar	to sound	yo sueno soñar	to dream	yo sueño torcer	to twist	yo tuerco tronar	to thunder	yo trueno volar	to fly	yo vuelo

Table 8: Some common verbs for which the o in the stem becomes ue when conjugated.

Again for all of these and the following vowel changes prefixes count as well. For instance the words comprobar (to check/prove), descontar (to deduct/exclude) and descolgar (to take down) undergo a vowel change as well.

3. e becomes i. As an example we use repetir (to repeat).

Subject	ir-Ending	Example (repetir)	Meaning yo	- O	yo rep i to	I repeat tú	-es	tú rep i tes	You repeat el/ella/usted	-e	el rep i te	he/she/you repeat(s) nosotros	-imos	nostros repetimos	we repeat vosotros	-ís	vosotros repetís	you repeat ellos/ellas/ustedes	-en	ellos rep i ten	they/you repeat

Table 9: The verb repetir conjugated.

There are only a few common words with that scheme:

Verb	Meaning	Example
conseguir	to get	yo consigo corregir	to correct	yo corrijo decir	to say/tell	yo digo $\operatorname{despedir}$	to fire/to say goodbye/to dismiss	yo despido elegir	to elect	yo elijo impedir	to impede/prevent	yo impido medir	to measure	yo mido pedir	to ask for	yo pido perseguir	to follow/chase	yo persigo repetir	to repeat	yo repito reírse	to laugh	yo me río seguir	to follow	yo sigo servir	to serve	yo sirvo sonreírse	to smile at	yo me sonrío (to smile at me) vestirse	to get dressed	yo me visto

Table 10: Some common verbs for which e becomes i in the stem when conjugated.

4. i becomes ie. There exist only two commonly used verbs with this vocal change: adquirir (to acquire) and inquirir (to inquire).

Subject	ir-Ending	Example (adquirir)	Meaning yo	-O	yo adqu ie ro	I acquire tú	-es	tú adqu ie res	You acquire el/ella/usted	-e	el adqu ie re	he/she/you acquire(s) nosotros	-imos	nostros adquirimos	we acquire vosotros	-ís	vosotros adquirís	you acquire ellos/ellas/ustedes	-en	ellos adqu ie ren	they/you acquire

Table 11: The verb adquirir conjugated.

Subject	ir-Ending	Example (inquirir)	Meaning yo tú	-0	yo inqu ie ro tú inqu ie res	I inquire You inquire el/ella/usted	-es -e	el inqu ie re	he/she/you inquire(s) nosotros vosotros	-imos -ís	nostros inquirimos vosotros inquirís	we inquire you inquire ellos/ellas/ustedes	-en	ellos inqu ie ren	they/you inquire

Table 12: The verb inquirir conjugated.

5. u becomes ue. Finally for this vowel change, there is only one commonly used verb: jugar (to play).

Subject	ar-Ending	Example (jugar)	Meaning yo	-O	yo j ue go	I play tú	-as	tú j ue gas	You play el/ella/usted	-a	el j ue ga	he/she/you play(s) nosotros	-amos	nostros jugamos	we play vosotros	-áis	vosotros jugáis	you play ellos/ellas/ustedes	-an	ellos j ue gan	they/you play

Table 13: The verb jugar conjugated.

Irregular Verbs. Finally there are some common verbs with irregular yo forms³, otherwise they follow the standard patterns of the -ar tack and the -er/-ir track (in the so far discussed present tense):

³https://www.spanishdict.com/guide/spanish-present-tense-forms

Infinitive	Meaning	yo form
caber	to fit	quepo
caer	to fall	caigo
conocer	to know	conozco

salir	to leave/to go out	salgo traducir	to translate	$\operatorname{traduzco}$ traer	to bring	traigo
valer	to be worth	valgo
ver	to see	veo

Table 14: Verbs with irregular yo forms.

Furthermore there are four of the most common verbs that are irregular. These are ser (to be), estar (to be), ir (to go) and haber (to have). The corresponding conjugations are^4 :

3 Pronouns

In the positive infinite form pronouns are attached in the opposite order as in English to the word. For instance,

4 Moods in Spanish

There exist three moods in Spanish⁵:

1. Imperative mood: for giving commands. Remember that we have two tracks of verbs, the -ar track and the -ir/-er track. However, the informal commands are built differently. We start with them. Furthermore, in the imperative mode the go-go words turn into ga-ga's! For instance digo (I tell/I say) becomes diga (Tell! or Say!).

Imperative Mood, i.e. Commands

• Positive (Affirmative) informal commands on the -ar track: Use the present tense and drop the -s ending. For instance with the words comprar (to buy), aprender (to learn) and escribir (to write) we have following.

Verb	Present tense	Tú command	Example	Meaning
comprar	tu compras	compra	Compra la camiseta!	Buy the T-shirt!
aprender	tu aprendes	aprende	Aprende español!	Learn Spanish!
escribir	tu escribes	escribe	Escribe el ensayo!	Write the essay!

Pronoun placement. The pronouns have to be attached to the verb as it is a positive command and often an accent is used:

Verb	Tu form	Pronouns	Example	Meaning
traer	traes	lo (it)	Traelo.	Bring it.
traer	traes	me (me), lo (it)	Tráemelo.	Bring it to me.
decir	dices	lo (it)	Dígalo. (or dilo)	Say it.
decir	dices	se (him/her), lo (it)	Dígaselo.	Say it to her.
comprar	compras	se (him/her), lo (it)	Cómpraselo.	Buy it for him.
poner	pones	los (them)	Ponte los	Put on your zapatos ¡Póntelos!	shoes. Put them on!

• Negative informal commands on the -ar track: For the negative informal commands, go to the stem word, take the present tense form and switch tracks. That is words ending in -ar become -er and vice versa and of course use a negative word no (not) or nunca(never):

 $^{^5 \}mathrm{https://www.spanishdict.com/guide/subjunctive-vs-indicative-in-spanish}$

Verb	Present tense	Tú command	Example	Meaning
comprar	tu compr a s	no compr e s	No compres la camiseta!	Don't buy!
aprender	tu aprend \mathbf{e} s	no aprend a s	No aprendas español!	Don't learn!
escribir	tu escrib \mathbf{e} s	no escrib a s	Nunca escribas el ensayo!	Never write!

- Formal commands:
- Nosotros commands
- Indirect commands
- Informal commands on the -ir/-er track: Use the present tense and drop the -r ending
- 2. Indicative mood: to talk about facts or things that are believed to be true and concrete.
- 3. Subjunctive mood: to talk about desired, doubts, wishes, conjectures, and possibilities.

5 Tenses

There exist present, past and future tenses in Spanish:

5.1 El tiempo presente (The Present Tense)

Simple Present Tense. That is actually what we have been using all the time up to this point. You can use it to talk about

- 1. Habitual Actions: Me levanto a las seis y media cada mañana. 6
- 2. Things happening now: ¿Cómo estas?
 7 ¿Qué haces? 8 Estoy bien, gracias. 9 Limpio la cocina.
 10
- 3. Timeless events/universal truths: Uno más uno son dos¹¹ El hombre es mortal. ¹²
- 4. Hypothetical situations: Si llega Marcos, salgo. 13 Si llueve, la fiesta termina. 14
- 5. Lapses of time by using $hace + [time\ period] + que + [present\ tense\ verb]$: Hace tres años que esperamos tu llamada. 15
- 6. Ordering something in a restaurant: Me trae un café, por favor. 16 Quiero el arroz ⁶I get up at six thirty every morning.

⁷How are you?

⁸What are you doing?

⁹I am fine, thanks.

¹⁰I clean the kitchen. (I am cleaning the kitchen.)

¹¹One plus one is two.

¹²Mankind is mortal.

¹³If Marcos comes, I am out.

¹⁴If it rains, the party is over.

¹⁵We have been waiting three years for your call.

¹⁶Would you bring me a coffee please?
